PRAYER TO SAN PELLEGRINO MARTIRE

PREGHIERA A S. PELLEGRINO MARTIRE

Glorious S. Pellegrino, our protector, from your glorious throne we ask you to look after your devoted children, who are in such need of your help and support.

Give us the strength and zeal of your faith, so that we do not stray from our beliefs, and as you, become joyful witness of the gospel.

We particularly ask you to help us not to be lured by false hopes throughout the world, but be guided by your example and strengthened by the faith of our fathers, and openly profess that Jesus Christ is the only saviour of the world, the only anchor of salvation.

Oh protector and friend, we ask that your many children of Altavilla and those who worship your glorious name in Australia and other far away places may always be sure of your intercession, for themselves and their families. Amen

Glorious S. Pellegrino, nostro protettore, dal tuo trono glorioso volgiti, ti preghiamo, ai tuoi figli devoti tanto bisognosi del tuo patrocinio ed aiuto.

Dacci il tuo zelo e la forza della tua fede perché anche noi non vacilliamo mai nelle nostre convinzioni e, come te, possiamo essere gioiosi testimoni del vangelo.

In modo particolare, ti preghiamo perché, no ci lasciamo irritare dalle tante chimere del mondo d'oggi ma, seguendo il tuo esempio e rafforzati nella fede dei nostri padri, sappiamo professare apertamente che Gesù Cristo è l'unico salvatore del mondo, l'unica anchora di salvezza.

Ancora una preghiera ti rivolgiamo, nostro celeste amico e protettore: fa che i tuoi figli d'Altavilla e quanti fra essi hanno voluto far conoscere il tuo nome glorioso nella lontana Australia ed in altre terra, possano sperimentare sempre, per i loro cari, la tua potente intercessione. Amen

Bernardino Marrone

DOB 12th December 1900

Arrived (Australia) 19 June 1925

Via Ship SS Caprera

Birthplace Altavilla Irpina, Province of Avellino, Italy

History

In 1925 Bernardino Marrone realised that living in Altavilla Irpina was not going to provide a suitable life for him and his family which included his wife Rosina and three children, Pellegrino, Francesca, and Alfredo. Initially intending to immigrate to America he found the ship fully booked at the Port of Naples and boarded the SS Caprera to Australia and arriving in Melbourne on 19 June 1925.

Bernardino first Australian job was at the Broken Hill Mines, New South Wales. Broken Hill known as the Silver City, due its rich deposits of silver, lead, and zinc. Despite the challenging work financial reward supported his family back in Altavilla. However, Bernardino dearly missed his family back in Altavilla.

Bernardino decided to become an Australian Citizen in 1930 to be able to continue working in the mines and was naturalised. He returned to his family in Altavilla, Italy in 1930 and fathered 2 more children, Guido, and Sylvia. Whilst he was back in Italy he worked on the land.

The family was complete now, but he missed the opportunities he had in Australia. Given Bernardino was now a Naturalised Australian, this assisted him and his family needs. In 1934 he decided that he would immigrate back to Australia again and returned to the Broken Hill mines.

In 1946 he applied for his family to be allowed to immigrate and join him. Alfredo and Guido were the first to arrive February 1948. Francesca came with her husband Guido and young daughter Roma in May 1949. Pellegrino arrived in May 1951 and Rosina with Sylvia followed in October 1952.

After World War II there was little work in Altavilla Irpina and many sought to immigrate. While some went to the United States of America and South America many Altavillese migrated to Australia.

Italians living in Australia were allowed to nominate one member per family to be able to immigrate from Altavilla Irpina to Australia. Both Bernardino Marrone and Bernardino Matto received many requests from people in Altavilla Irpina to be nominated to be able to migrate to Australia. They did this and as each immigrant arrived, they would nominate somebody else to be able migrate and so began a mass exodus of people from Altavilla Irpina to Adelaide.

Several migrants from Altavilla Irpina worked in the Broken Hill mines often staying at Bernardino's boarding house.

In the early post-war years most immigrants came in merchant ships which sometimes included multiple port stops some for a few days as cargo was loaded and unloaded. By the 1950's that cruise ships started to bring migrants directly to Australia. Until the 1960's ships typically docked at Melbourne requiring the migrants to catch the train to Adelaide.

In 1965 Bernardino retired from the Broken Hill mines and moved to Adelaide purchasing a house at 317 Magill Road Trinity Gardens.

Bernardino Marrone passed away on 18th April 1975 in Adelaide at 75 years of age

Bernardino Matto

DOB 1st June 1893

Arrived (Australia) 12 October 1926

Via Ship Citta Di Genova

Birthplace Altavilla Irpina, Province of Avellino, Italy.

History

Bernardino Matto came to Australia in 1926 at age 33. He was married to Rosina (nee Caruso) and they had two boys, Pellegrino and Michele and a girl named Antonietta. Michele did not follow the rest of the family to Australia as he was studying to become a doctor. When Bernardino arrived in Australia, he had left behind his wife Rosina and three children. After World War II his wife Rosina and Antonietta joined him in February 1948.

During World War I Bernardino served in the Italian national military service from 20 September 1913 and was stationed in military district of Livorno until discharged on 23 January 1919.

Bernardino came from a farming family in Altavilla and immigrated to Australia after learning from Bernardino Marrone who had served in the mines in Broken Hill. A lot of other paesani began a future in Australia through a system of "Chain Migration" whereby people of a particular town or paese would settle in same place in Australia through their paesani recommendations. Many paesani were helped with recommendations from Bernardino Matto and Bernardino Marrone. Also, many of these early migrants needed somewhere to live for a short while until they were able to find a home. Bernardino Matto used his home as a boarding house for some of these migrants.

Initially Bernardino began working in the mines in Broken Hill. Work in the mines was hard and given his experience in farming he decided to move to Mildura to farm the land. In 1940 he applied for naturalization as an Australian Citizen under Naturalization Act 1920-1930 and became an Australian Citizen. Rosina was also naturalized in 1949.

Bernardino was very successful at farming the land and bought a huge parcel of land in the Bolivar-Salisbury area. Bernardino had all his family involved in the farm and they grew all types of vegetables including tomatoes, cabbages, cauliflowers and turnips. Barry, Bernardino's younger grandson recalls ploughing the land assisted with "Dicky" the horse and cart before more updated tractors were used. Crops were also grown in glasshouses for sale at the farmers markets. Throughout his working years Bernardino was a very hard working, respectable farming man and astute businessman. His family was also the centre of his universe and assisted with their own businesses.

As time went by, back in Italy, his son Michele became a famous doctor after graduating in medicine in Rome with a specialization in paediatrics, he worked at the university clinic of Modena as a paediatrician from 1949 to 1959. He was awarded the Gold Medal dedicated to assisting the aged with the effigy of the Municipality. A lifetime of motivation dedicated to assisting the sick Cervignanesi, the elderly of the nursing home and for the recognition for the work carried out in Cervignano from 1958 to 1993, even in his retirement years.

Bernardino Matto passed away on 6th August 1967 in Adelaide at 74 years of age.

Data di nascita 12 Dicembre 1900

Arrivo (Australia) 19 Giugno 1925

Via nave SS Caprera

Luogo di nascita Altavilla Irpina, provincia di Avellino, Italia.

Storia

Nel 1925, Bernardino Marrone si rese conto che vivere ad Altavilla Irpina non avrebbe offerto una buona vita a lui e alla sua famiglia, che comprendeva la moglie Rosina e tre figli, Pellegrino, Francesca e Alfredo.

Inizialmente intenzionato a emigrare in America, trovò la nave completamente prenotata al porto di Napoli e si imbarcò sulla SS Caprera per l'Australia, arrivando a Melbourne il 19 giugno 1925.

Il primo lavoro in Australia di Bernardino fu presso le miniere di Broken Hill, nel Nuovo Galles del Sud. Broken Hill era conosciuta come la città dell'argento, per i suoi ricchi giacimenti di argento, piombo e zinco. Nonostante il lavoro fosse impegnativo, il suo salario sostenne la sua famiglia ad Altavilla. Tuttavia, Bernardino sentiva molto la mancanza della sua famiglia ad Altavilla.

Bernardino decise di diventare cittadino australiano nel 1930 per poter continuare a lavorare nelle miniere e fu naturalizzato. Tornò dalla sua famiglia ad Altavilla, in Italia, nel 1930 e divenne padre di altri due figli, Guido e Sylvia. Mentre era di nuovo in Italia, lavorò nei campi.

La famiglia era al completo ora, ma gli mancavano le opportunità che aveva in Australia. Dato che Bernardino era ora un australiano naturalizzato, questo aiutò lui e la sua famiglia a soddisfare le loro esigenze. Nel 1934, decise di tornare di nuovo in Australia e tornò alle miniere di Broken Hill.

Nel 1946, fece domanda affinché la sua famiglia potesse immigrare e raggiungerlo. Alfredo e Guido furono i primi ad arrivare nel febbraio 1948. Francesca arrivò con il marito Guido e la figlia piccola Roma, nel maggio 1949. Pellegrino arrivò nel maggio 1951 e Rosina con Sylvia lo seguì nell'ottobre 1952.

Dopo la seconda guerra mondiale c'era poco lavoro ad Altavilla Irpina e molti cercarono di emigrare. Mentre alcuni andarono negli Stati Uniti d'America e in Sud America, molti Altavillesi emigrarono in Australia.

Agli italiani che vivevano in Australia era consentito nominare un membro per famiglia che potesse emigrare da Altavilla Irpina in Australia. Sia Bernardino Marrone che Bernardino Matto ricevettero molte richieste da persone di Altavilla Irpina che volevano essere nominati per poter emigrare in Australia. Lo fecero e quando un emigrato arrivava, nominava qualcun altro per poter emigrare e così iniziò un esodo di massa di persone da Altavilla Irpina ad Adelaide.

Diversi migranti di Altavilla Irpina lavoravano nelle miniere di Broken Hill, spesso alloggiando nella pensione di Bernardino.

Nei primi anni del dopoguerra, la maggior parte degli immigrati arrivava su navi mercantili che a volte prevedevano più fermate nei porti, alcune delle quali duravano solo pochi giorni, mentre le merci venivano caricate e scaricate. Negli anni '50, le navi da crociera iniziarono a portare i migranti direttamente in Australia. Fino agli anni '60, le navi attraccavano solitamente a Melbourne, richiedendo ai migranti di prendere il treno per Adelaide.

Nel 1965, Bernardino si ritirò dalle miniere di Broken Hill e si trasferì ad Adelaide, acquistando una casa al numero 317 di Magill Road, Trinity Gardens.

Bernardino Marrone morì il 18 aprile 1975 ad Adelaide all'età di 75 anni.

Storia

Bernardino Matto arrivò in Australia nel 1926 all'età di 33 anni. Era sposato con Rosina (nata Caruso) e avevano due figli, Pellegrino e Michele e una figlia di nome Antonietta. Michele non seguì il resto della famiglia in Australia perché stava studiando per diventare medico. Quando Bernardino arrivò in Australia, aveva lasciato in Italia la moglie Rosina e tre figli. Dopo la seconda guerra mondiale, la moglie Rosina e la figlia Antonietta lo raggiunsero nel febbraio 1948.

Durante la prima guerra mondiale, Bernardino prestò servizio nell'esercito nazionale italiano dal 20 settembre 1913 e fu di stanza nel distretto militare di Livorno fino al congedo il 23 gennaio 1919.

Bernardino proveniva da una famiglia di contadini di Altavilla ed emigrò in Australia dopo aver parlato con Bernardino Marrone, che aveva prestato servizio nelle miniere di Broken Hill. Molti altri paesani iniziarono una nuova vita in Australia attraverso un sistema di "migrazione a catena" in base al quale le persone di una particolare città o paese si stabilivano nello stesso posto in Australia tramite le raccomandazioni dei loro paesani. Molti paesani furono aiutati dalle raccomandazioni di Bernardino Matto e Bernardino Marrone. Inoltre, molti di questi primi migranti avevano bisogno di un posto dove vivere per un breve periodo finché non fossero riusciti a trovare una casa. Bernardino Matto usò la sua casa come pensione per alcuni di questi migranti.

Inizialmente, Bernardino iniziò a lavorare nelle miniere di Broken Hill. Il lavoro nelle miniere era duro e, data la sua esperienza nell'agricoltura, decise di trasferirsi a Mildura per coltivare la terra. Nel 1940, fece domanda di naturalizzazione come cittadino australiano ai sensi del Naturalization Act 1920-1930 e divenne cittadino australiano. Anche Rosina fu naturalizzata nel 1949.

Bernardino ebbe molto successo nell'agricoltura e acquistò un enorme appezzamento di terra nella zona di Bolivar-Salisbury. Bernardino coinvolse tutta la sua famiglia nella fattoria e coltivarono tutti i tipi di verdure, tra cui pomodori, cavoli, cavolfiori e rape. Barry, il nipote più giovane di Bernardino, ricorda di aver arato la terra con l'aiuto di "Dicky", il cavallo e il carretto, prima che venissero utilizzati trattori più moderni. I raccolti venivano anche coltivati in serre per la vendita nei mercati agricoli.

Durante i suoi anni di lavoro, Bernardino fu un contadino molto laborioso e rispettabile e un abile uomo d'affari. La sua famiglia era il centro del suo universo e lo aiutava con le sue attività.

Con il passare del tempo, tornato in Italia, il figlio Michele divenne un famoso medico dopo essersi laureato in medicina a Roma con specializzazione in pediatria e lavorò presso la clinica universitaria di Modena come pediatra dal 1949 al 1959. Fu insignito della Medaglia d'oro dedicata all'assistenza agli anziani con l'effigie del Comune, per il riconoscimento del lavoro svolto a Cervignano dal 1958 al 1993, anche negli anni della pensione. La sua vita fu dedicata all'assistenza dei malati Cervignanesi e degli anziani della casa di riposo.

Bernardino Matto morì il 6 agosto 1967 ad Adelaide all'età di 74 anni.
